

Pneumatic clamping tool on ViperHoist, Project no: 6722

A pneumatic clamping tool attached to the ViperHoist120 for lifting reels of tube up to 80 kg. The tool clamps the reel from the outside and lifts the reel. It is equipped with a double joy stick and a up/down handle for flexible and safe operation. Including double button safety controls and variable speed control. Stroke from 550-810mm.

The Viper was designed with flexibility and the customer in mind, with our customizable tooling options operators are able to handle a variety of applications.

